

I'm Someone
No one should live
homeless and hungry.

A Message from the President

Someone Like Us

Homeless people occupy an awkward space between curiosity (“Don’t stare!”) and invisibility (“I don’t even notice him anymore”). Sometimes we can forget that a person experiencing homelessness is someone just like us. An illness or job loss can be devastating for anyone. When someone is at their lowest, Central Union Mission equips them to care for themselves and others.

Fiscal Year 2019 was a yet another example of God’s generous provision that I can’t wait to share with you. Please check out this report for some exciting details.

With you and your compassion, Central Union Mission can continue to renovate hundreds of lives—as it has throughout its 135-year history. Thank you for your commitment to serving our neighbors.

Joseph Mettimano
President & CEO

Men’s Ministry

Central Union Mission’s Men’s Ministry programs not only provide for physical needs, we also give people the skills to return to their community successfully—restored knowing they have the educational, vocational and spiritual foundation to stand on their own.

Central Union Mission provided 62,843 bed-nights of shelter for men experiencing homelessness. Five employed men, graduates of Mission programs, live at our Lambert House transitional home. In addition to food, shelter and clothing, we provided 2,514 medical and dental exams.

The Restoration & Transformation Program helped 81 men rehab from life-consuming addictions, nurture their walk with Jesus, strengthen their abilities and determination and gain an accountability network, which included help from 5,808 counseling sessions.

The Workforce & Development Program provides job readiness training, which prepared 202 men for employment and personal responsibility. The Mission provided shelter residents and program participants 13,928 hours of instruction in English literacy, GED/high school diploma preparation and computer training.

Overall, the Mission found permanent housing for 52 program participants this year, and 106 gained successful employment outside the Mission.

I Work

“I’m building skills and resilience. I got a second chance.”

Family Ministry Center

At the Family Ministry Center, besides providing 253,800 bags of groceries, Mission friends donated Operation Christmas Miracle presents for 2,200 children and new backpacks and back-to-school supplies for 480 students. Camp Bennett is undergoing renovations and will re-open with an updated program in 2020.

By the Numbers

The Family Ministry Center also offers these wrap-around services for seniors and families:

- Clothing and household items shared: 54,015
- Alcoholics Anonymous participants: 832
- Furloughed federal employees' families served grocery bags: 13
- Senior Fellowship luncheon guests: 250 each month
- Mothers hosted at the Baby Shower: 14; baby items donated: 700
- Thanksgiving turkeys distributed: 730
- Basic computer class graduates: 27; free computers awarded: 27
- Families receiving free legal counsel: 33
- English as a Second Language students: 43
- Family Literacy Book Club members: 22
- Prayer requests prayed for: 2,220
- New and re-dedicated followers of Christ: 11

I Support My Family

Thanks to Our Supporters

For every one of Central Union Mission's 135 years, we have been funded and equipped by concerned private individuals, church, companies and community groups—not the government. We appreciate that your financial giving and volunteering are godly models for our guests.

4,952 volunteer opportunities were filled this year, contributing 7,153 hours of volunteer work.

Generous supporters donated $16,124,203 in cash and gifts-in-kind, which includes $106,853 bequeathed in legacy gifts. We are grateful to these friends and organizations that contributed critical goods, services and financial support.
